

AWAKEN THE SLUMBERING GODDESS

with

Ashok Bedi

Saturday, March 15th, 10:00am to 4:30pm

We all live a manifest outer life. Embedded in the psyche of each individual is a hidden, potential life, aligned to our purpose and true calling. This potential life is orchestrated by a latent code of our Self that is unique to each individual. The latent code is orchestrated by the Self, derives from the substrate of the archetypes, and is implemented by our ego consciousness. When the ego, the Self and the archetypes work in symphony, new symbols guide our life onto a vital, creative and purposeful trajectory. This presentation will explore role of the Hindu Goddess archetypes in our individuation process at the different developmental stages of adult life. Clinical vignettes will illustrate the working of the latent code of the goddess archetypes and its dance with the archetype of the Self.

Learning Objectives:

- Explore the dynamics of the Goddess archetypes activation in incarnation of the Self
- Present the analytical management of the activated archetype to attend to the Ego/Self axis
