

India – a land of conflicts, reconciliations and Healing

By

Ashok Bedi, M.D.

Coordinated by

Professor Eric P. Rudge & Dr. Shanti Venetiaan

India is a land of cultural and religious splits. Hinduism, Islam, Christianity and Buddhism have warred for minds and souls of Indians for centuries. Yet, like Surinam - the Indian psyche has found a way to weave a fragile yet enduring matrix of reconciliation, healing and wholeness. The complexity of the Indian Psyche is both intriguing and overwhelming. Analytical Psychology offers us a paradigm for integration of opposites and wholeness in individuals and cultures. This will be explored as it relates to individuals and the society.
